

End User License Agreement (EULA) for CAKE Dataset

By signing this agreement, the signing institution or authorized institutional official (“Licensee”) agrees to be bound by all the following terms:

1. Dataset Format

This dataset contains movie titles, timestamps corresponding to individual video clips, associated metadata linked to external movie materials, alongside custom annotations collected by the Licenser via crowdsourcing.

This dataset does not contain video files, audio files, or any copyrighted media content. The Licensee must independently secure legal access to the underlying media materials subject to the terms outlined in article 2.

2. Legal Compliance and Copyright Disclaimer

The Licensee is solely responsible for ensuring that their use of this dataset complies with the laws of their country.

The Licensee must adhere to all applicable copyright regulations, fair use doctrines, or research exemptions governing multimedia materials within their local jurisdiction. The Licenser assumes no liability for any copyright infringements committed by the Licensee.

3. Authorized Signatory

This agreement must be signed by a faculty member, principal investigator, or permanent research staff member holding a formal position at the Licensee’s institution. Undergraduate, postgraduate, or PhD students are not qualified to sign this on their own behalf.

The signing authority assumes full administrative and legal responsibility on behalf of the Licensee for ensuring that all students, research assistants, and team members under their direct supervision comply with these terms.

4. Academic and Non-Commercial Use

This dataset is provided solely for non-commercial, academic research, and educational purposes. The Licensee shall not use this dataset, or any models trained on it, for any commercial enterprise or financial gain.

5. Restrictions on Distribution and Disclosure

The Licensee shall not copy, redistribute, republish, or transmit the dataset, in whole or in part, to any third party outside the Licensee's immediate research team.

Access is strictly restricted to the Licensee's immediate research team under the direct supervision of the authorized signatory at the approved institution.

An exception is granted for the reproduction of limited snippets of the dataset for the exclusive purpose of illustrating qualitative examples in academic publications or presentations, subject to the terms outlined in article 6.

6. Publications

Any publication, conference paper, or research output utilizing this dataset must explicitly cite the original work.
